NAR Announces Innovative Simulation Training to Tackle Discrimination in Real Estate

CHICAGO (November 19, 2020)

– The National Association of Realtors® today announced the release of a new interactive training platform designed to help combat discrimination in America's real estate market – made available at no cost to real estate professionals throughout the country. Fairhaven is an immersive simulation where agents work against the clock to close four deals, confronting various scenarios where discrimination enters into the transaction.

The training, which also provides customized feedback to help real estate professionals incorporate fair housing principles in their daily interactions, will be offered directly to NAR members and to brokerage firms and Realtor® associations. It was produced in partnership with global professional services firm Ernst and Young.

"We are excited to announce the release of Fairhaven today, a new approach to fair housing training that is unlike anything currently available in the real estate industry," said Charlie Oppler, the CEO of Prominent Properties Sotheby's International Realty who was installed as NAR's 2021 president this week. "Fairhaven uses the immersive power of storytelling to deliver powerful lessons that will help promote equity in our nation's housing market. NAR will continue our work to create innovative anti-discrimination training and to champion efforts that encourage diversity, fight racial bias and build more inclusive communities."

In the fictional town of Fairhaven, agents must choose how to respond to various scenarios involving discrimination in real estate. They advance through the simulation based on their answers and receive feedback on their performance. In an innovative approach, the course also places agents in the role of a client experiencing discrimination. The client point-of-view scenarios are paired with powerful testimonials illustrating the impact of housing discrimination in real people's lives.

Fairhaven.realtor comes as part of NAR's ACT! Initiative, the association's fair housing action plan that emphasizes Accountability, Culture Change and Training to promote equal opportunity in real estate. In addition to training, the ACT! plan introduces self-testing and other mechanisms for holding real estate professionals accountable for discrimination.

As industry leaders in support of fair housing initiatives, NAR will make the resource available to all NAR members, industry partners and other real estate professionals directly via an online portal, found at Fairhaven.realtor. NAR will also offer Fairhaven as a software package for brokerage and association learning management systems.

The National Association of Realtors® is America's largest trade association, representing more than 1.4 million members involved in all aspects of the residential and commercial real estate industries.

License Renewal Extension Expiring Soon!

April 13, 2021

By Peg Ritenour, Ohio REALTORS Vice President of Legal Services

License renewal extension expiring soon Apr 13, 2021 By Peg Ritenour, Ohio REALTORS Vice President of Legal Services As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic legislation was passed in 2020 that granted a temporary extension of time for license renewals to Dec. 1, 2020. That deadline was later extended until July 1, 2021 in House Bill 404. Because this extension will be expiring soon, it is critical that licensees understand who qualifies for this extension and how it works. Below are some frequently asked questions.

Who qualifies for the extension?

Only licensees whose renewal was due between March 9, 2020 and April 1, 2021.

What if my license renewal date is between April 2, 2021 and July 1? Don't I qualify for the extension?

No. If your renewal is due April 2, 2021 or after, it must be filed by your due date.

If you qualify for the extension, how long do you have to renew your license?

Under HB 404, you have until July 1, 2021 to file your renewal application. However, many licensees have chosen to file their renewal by their due date.

If I qualify for the extension to July 1, 2021 does this change my next renewal date to July 1, 2024?

No, your future renewal dates will not change as a result of the extension. It will continue to be three years from the date your renewal was due, not from the extended deadline. For example, if your renewal date was Dec. 1, 2020, even though you have until July 1, 2021 to file your application, your next renewal deadline will still be Dec. 1, 2023.

Can I renew online if I am using the extension?

No, if you are utilizing the extension, you cannot renew online. There have been some delays with mail delivery.

What if I mail my renewal application before July 1 but the Division doesn't get it until after that date?

If your application is postmarked on or before July 1 it will be accepted by the Division.

What if my renewal application is incomplete?

According to the Division of Real Estate many licensees are failing to report their continuing education with their application or to include the required fee. Others are forgetting to sign their application. If this happens and the deficiency is not corrected by the deadline, it can result in a license suspension for non-renewal.

The COVID-19 pandemic is certainly not over yet. Is there a chance the legislature will extend the license renewal deadlines again?

At this time no legislation has been proposed to extend the license renewal deadlines beyond July 1. If that changes, Ohio REALTORS will promptly communicate this to its members
